

Book activities for grades K-2

Dress up like one of the characters. Explain your outfit. Where is the character or what is the character doing when he looks like that?	Draw your favorite part of the book.	Cover an empty cereal box with white paper. Draw a different cover for the book. Don't forget to add the title, author and illustrator information .
Talk about or write about the problem and solution in the book.	Reader Theater: Give a performance for a part of the book by reading it out loud with feeling and adding appropriate noises.	Create a 3-part comic strip with the beginning, middle and end of the book.
Scavenger Hunt: Find 3-5 things in the home that are connected to the book. Explain how each piece is connected to the characters or the story.	Up-cycle: Create something 3D in the book with whatever you have in the home. Ask for permission before you use it!	Take (draw) a selfie where you are part of a scene in the book.
Pretend you could talk with one of the characters. What would you say to him or her? Why?	Create a commercial for the book and act it out as if you were on TV.	Under parent supervision, schedule a Google Meet with a friend to talk about a book you read. It could be the same book or different books.
